F. JAY HAYNES TELLS SECRETS THEY LOST NO TIME IN MAKING

rought out in telling of the Yellowstone park pets.

"How I come to know that the bears pass the word around and do it quickly this: You know that with us they have been a nuisance for years. They are afraid of nothing because no one is ame so bold that nothing was safe into the wagons of the campers and steal everything to their taste. would enter tents, kitchens, dining rooms-anywhere-for good things to

The Shot That Cured.

"One day not long since one of these four-legged thieves stuck his head through the window of the hotel dining room and was sniffing around to get a line on the best victuals. Of course, the

had made its appearance up there. I don't know where they came from, but made up my mind to try one of these guns on the intruder. I got it, stepped up as close as I could and let him have the full charge of ammonia squarely in the nose. Well, sir, I'll bet that bear urned a hundred somersaults down the ute he stood with his head in the air, not looking back, but with the queerest expression ever seen on the mug of a bear. He seemed trying to figure out what struck him. Finally he made a bolt for the timber, and since then has not been seen in the haunts of men. bear has put in an appearance, bears communicate with each other. That bear has undoubtedly told every other bear in the Yellowstone park about the ammonia gun.

This Bear Trusts John.

"I know that a bear can learn the Chinese language because I have seen it tried. At one of the camps there was a Chinese cook. He took a great fancy the land afforded. He talked to him as have seen that Chinaman go out and give out a yell that could not be duplicated outside the Flowery Kingdom, in an instant that bear would come amhis meal and be real sociable with his Chinaman, but just as soon as John you could see a dark streak for a second and the next second the bear was highly trained. He had a passion for sugar, and this passion was indulged to the limit. I have seen the major lie down on his back on the his lips. That bear would walk up and

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM T. HART.

—Mrs. William T. Hart, a well known and highly respected young woman of Satt Lake, died of diphtheria at her home, 127 North Second West, yesterday ufternoon after an illness of two days. Mrs. Hart leaves a husband and three children, the oldest child being 9 years of age. Mrs. Hart was formerly Miss Rosafie Williamson, and was born in Salt Lake twentyeight years ago. She will be greatly missed in her home and among the friends who knew her best.

BOY LEAVES HOME. -Quincy Nich BOY LEAVES HOME.—Quincy Nichols, jr.. 20 years of age, who lives at 460 South Third West street, turned up missing yesterday afternoon and his parents believe he left for the St. Louis fair. The police were notified and are trying to have the youth stopped at Ogden. Young Nichols has been planning his tour all summer and saved up all his wages for expense money. According to his companions he took the first freight train out of the city this afternoon and intends to save money by going over the left-handed route. His parents are considerably worried about him and the officers were unab'e to locate him in Ogden.

Fired One Shot.

Without waking her daughter she went downstairs and got her revolver. She slipped out the back door into the rear of the building, thinking that some-body was trying to break in. She could hear nothing, but while standing there listening the burglars commenced work again. She moved around to where she could get a glimpse of them, and fired, running back into the house as the burglars ran through the block. She called the police by telephone.

Officers Seager and Carless responded in the patrol wagon. A set of burglar tools were found by them in the doorway of the store. The door was badly shattered. The lock had been sprung, but a bar across the door held it. When discovered they were chiseling out a panel and had an entrance almost made. Mrs. Butterworth was so far away that she was unable to give any kind of a description of the men. She did not see them distinctly until they ran through the block.

The kit of tools was taken to the p
